

Keynoter Gary Davis joins Dorrier Underwood consulting team

Raleigh, NC - February 23, 2010 - Dorrier Underwood is pleased to announce that Gary Davis has joined its consulting team.

A well-respected keynoter and motivational speaker, Davis is known for his regional humor and practical insights into building strong business relationships.

“Organizational consulting is a natural complement to my public speaking,” Davis said. “When you’re in front of a group, your job is to turn a light on so folks see something they weren’t able to see before. Coaching is what has people put those insights into action.

“Gary’s joy for life, love of people, and incredible sense of humor give him the ability to build long-lasting business relationships. You see it in his obvious commitment to his clients’ producing results,” said company president Nancy Dorrier. “We’re delighted to have him on our team.”

Davis is a graduate of the University of North Carolina with a BA degree in Education. He and his wife live in Fuquay-Varina with their three children.
