

Campbell University "RTP flips the tassels at 100-plus students for third consecutive year

Research Triangle Park, NC -- In search of sustainable skills and hot new jobs, adults have returned to school in record numbers these past few years.

Finishing its third consecutive year with 100+ students graduating is no small claim to fame for Campbell University &ndash; RTP. The campus attributes these numbers to the determination of its adult students who are focused on completing degrees in these tough economic times as a way to become more appealing to potential employers.

Enrollment at the RTP campus is up seven percent from last year, and the school recently added six new faculty members to keep up with demand. So far this year, Campbell RTP has conferred 11 Associate and 91 Bachelor's degrees.

Campbell University &ndash; RTP Campus has been in the Research Triangle Park for more than 18 years and is one of the university's four extended campuses. The school currently has more than 275 students enrolled, representing a total of 33 nations.
