

Catering by Design Wins Best Caterer Award for 2012 in the Raleigh North Carolina Area

Raleigh, NC - Catering by Design has won The Knot Best of Weddings Award 2012 for Best Caterer in the Raleigh area. The Knot notified Catering by Design via phone call. "We're very excited that Triangle brides have voted us the best wedding caterer in the Triangle!" said Chef Greg Lewis, owner and general manager of Catering by Design. "We love catering weddings and giving our all to make it the best day for our brides."

The Knot, one of the premier wedding sites for brides across America, has an annual survey for recent brides to rate all of their wedding related vendors. It is administered by a third party.

The survey results for the 2012 ranking in North Carolina were tallied, showing Raleigh's Catering by Design as the sole caterer in the Raleigh Durham Chapel Hill area to win.

Formal notice and publication of the results by The Knot will occur on December 30th, 2011, when they publish all the Best of Weddings 2012 winners.

Chef Greg Lewis said, "We look forward to adding the award ribbon to our website and heartily thank all our brides for voting for Catering by Design as The Knot's Best of Wedding Caterers in the Triangle for 2012."
