The Wolfpack Club, NC State's fundraising organization for athletic scholarships and facility enhancements is pleased to announce the exceptional turnout for Fun Night at Carter-Finley Stadium held on Friday, June 18th. It was an exciting night for Junior Wolfpackers as well as non-members and guests who had the opportunity to get temporary tattoos, play in jump houses, meet Mr. Wuf and watch Madagascar on the 50 yard line of Carter-Finley. "It was the first time we have held an event like this and we are extremely excited about the tremendous turnout we had," said Media Hooks, Associate Director of the Wolfpack Club. "It really showed everyone what it's all about to be an NC State fan and part of The Wolfpack Club." The event brought out 720 Wolfpack fans and guests alike to participate and enjoy the eventful evening. In addition, 50 NC State student-athletes and volunteers came out, giving the athletes the chance to mingle with some of their biggest fans. This event is one of several held throughout the year. The Junior Wolfpack Club provides unique opportunities to young Wolfpackers including free admission to several home NC State sporting events. It also offers exclusively to its members, like the opportunity to meet various players and coaches as well as attend special member only events.
